Eagles grab Homecoming win

Gaining ground

Ricky Cooper (12) carries the ball as he plows through Plainview defenders.

By
KEVIN LONG
Canyon High School's 8-7 victory over Plainview last Friday night was almost a carbon copy of one of those novels written exclusively for young readers. Time is running out, everything so far has gone wrong but there is still one pretentious person around who is unknown but determined, and he goes back one last time to try to overwhelm those evil villains who have the temerity to, among other things, attempt to spoil Homecoming.

The hero in this particular case happened to be Robert Scott who ran for a 26 yard touchdown with 5:39 left to play although, with all due credit to Scott, the blocking was so excellent Eagle coach Deane Wright could have probably carried the ball himself and went into the end zone unmolested.

"I am not taking anything away from Robert because he played an excellent game," admitted Wright, "but we called the right play at the right time and who ever had the football was going to score."

Vince Price booted the extra point through the uprights but Plainview was offside on the conversion and when penalized half the distance to the goal

Wright decided to go for the go ahead points instead of a tie. Gary Ward smashed over the right side for the two point conversion and Canyon, which had been down 7-0 since the first quarter was now on top 8-7.

There were several good plays which led up to Scott's score. Len Schmidt, the Eagles senior linebacker threw Bulldog quarterback John Home for a 15 yard loss forcing Plainview to punt from their own 15 on the previous series. When the Eagles got possession David McKay rambled 21 yards on the first play, Joe Luquette ran for 11 two plays later and two plays after that Scott scored.

Up until this point the offense had been ineffective.

"Obviously we had an off night," said Wright. "We just did not play well offensively, they were whipping us in the line."

And it probably would have taken a CPA to count all the mistakes they made. They suffered one costly delay of game penalty on a third and two from midfield in the third quarter which killed their best drive up until that point, not to mention the four fumbles they lost throughout the evening.

Faculty Council mum on president's house

The WTSU Faculty Council decided Thursday to stay out of the opposition brewing on campus to construction of a lavish president's residence.

Regents at the fall meeting Monday sent house plans back to the drawing board for a larger, more expensively constructed house. The plans presented to the regents was 3,300 square feet with an estimated construction cost of $22 a square foot. The larger home has an estimated construction cost of $40-$46 a square foot.

Thursday, faculty chairman Dr. Darrell Munsell conveyed the sentiment from WTSU president Dr. Lloyd Watkins that Watkins was not in favor of, or sponsoring the move to build a more expensive house.

Munsell said there was some faculty discontent with the idea that had been brought to him.

Watkins also sought through Munsell to elaborate several points he had discussed with the council about the proposed evaluation by the faculty of administrators.

"He wants to stress that the evaluation won't be an exercise in futility and at the same time, to the administrators that evaluation won't be an ax to lop off heads," Munsell said.

Munsell said Watkins emphasized that evaluations will be used as only one measurement in decisions of merit raises or promotions and will not be used to initiate reprimands or discharge of administrators. There will be no minimum score necessary.

Munsell also presented drafts of two letters for council approval on recommendations decided at the last faculty council session.

In a letter drafted for Dr. David Wheeler, chairman of research and dean of the graduate school, the council recommended maintaining the organized research committee, as an advisory body.

The ORC is needed, the council decided, to provide another opportunity for the faculty to participate in decisions on grant funding. The council also believes that the committee can provide a balance and check in the operation of the research funding system.

The council also showed concern over the financing arrangements since the Killgore Research Center was reorganized last spring. The members fear that a too close relationship of Killgore Research and the Organized research funds will jeopardize money for organized research.

In the second letter drafted to go to university registrar Dr. Donald Cates concerning a proposal for early registration, the council said "most of the members feel the proposal was so lacking in merit, it deserves no further consideration."

The report further recommended that the university adopt some sort of computer pre-registration "instead of the present procedure effectuated twice as often."

They recommended the study of various computer and non-computer registration systems (See FACULTY, Page 5)

Student hurt at CHS dance

A high school student injured at the CHS Homecoming dance Friday night was in satisfactory condition Saturday at High Plains Baptist Hospital.

Mike Mallory said he was sitting on the sidewalk in front of Canyon High talking to a friend when someone ran up behind him and either kicked or struck him.

He was immobilized by the blow, which, Mallory said, tore muscles in his legs. He had regained the use of one leg Saturday, he said.

The student said all he knew about his assailant was that it was a boy with long, curly, black hair and was believed to be driving a jeep.

Mallory was taken by ambulance to Amarillo Emergency Receiving Center about midnight and was then transferred to High Plains.

The regent's decision last Monday to purchase a new computer disk drive did not by-pass approval of a university committee, WTSU vice-president for financial affairs said Friday.

"In fact, last May we did discuss the need for more on line disk time, and so I can't say it hasn't been discussed," Hermas Miller said.

At the faculty council meeting Thursday, professors complained that standing committees did not meet and were being ignored by the administration.

Last year, the long-range planning committee met only once, one member of the faculty council said.

Dr. Ray Malzahn, vice-president for academic affairs, said the committee system is just getting started again this year.

When the committees were first appointed, they met so frequently that professors and staff complained about it. Since then, he said, the committees have been called less often.

In addition to this, Malzahn said that, with all the other needed business around the university, time is limited to spend on committees.

"Last year, we put emphasis on our tenure and promotion committee and this took most of our time," he said.

This year, he hopes to distribute time and attention more evenly.

Miller pointed out that the computer use committee, which professors say should have reviewed the disk drive application was only an advisory committee and not an administrative one.

Still, he said, he didn't know why anyone would object to the purchase.

The computer use committee, which has not met at all this year, is made up of Miller, Derwood Henderson, a faculty member who deals with research and another faculty member who teaches computer courses.

'Tempest' to play

"The Tempest", one of William Shakespeare's last plays, will open the 1976 theatre season in the Brantley Iron Theatre Oct. 6-9 at 8 p.m. and Oct. 10 a matinee at 2 p.m.

A talented cast of fine arts students will be headed by Ron Williams as Prospero, the Duke of Milan.

Williams, a teaching assistant in the theatre department this year, is also the winner of the scholarship presented by an anonymous donor to honor William and Margaret Moore.

David Burrell, Canyon senior who plays the King of Naples, as well as serving on the technical staff of the production is winner of the technical portion of the Moore scholarship.

James Kemmerling is the designer and technical director of the comedy. Costume design is by Penny O'Keefe and dance direction is handled by Neil Hess with students from his studio performing the dances.

Tickets and reservations will be coordinated through the speech department box office in the present fine arts building. Adults are $2; high school students, $1.50; children $1 and WTSU students free with ID card.

Other actors include Allen Shankles, Canyon freshman, as

4-H'ers plan special week

Over 100 Randall County 4-H'ers and 39 adult leaders will celebrate National 4-H Week here Oct. 3-9.

The week will be highlighted by an awards banquet Oct. 7 at 6:30 p.m. at the city community center.

4-H'ers will also hold a clean-up at the community center tomorrow.

Friday, county judge Woody Pond signed a proclamation of national 4-H Week.

Caliban, a savage and deformed slave. Rian Smolik, Canyon junior will play Lord Adrian.

The large cast also includes Perry Brown, Amarillo freshman; Verlan Winegarner, Camp, Colo. sophomore; Joe Anderson, Lovington, N. M.

Mary Neal Henry, Canyon News columnist covering the Happy community, was among local residents learning about macrame hangings from Mrs. John McNeill, right, during the Creative Crafts Workshop held Thursday under sponsorship of the Randall County Home Demonstration Council. The free instruction workshop for crafts was held at the Farm Bureau Building.

City to get the word on future water supply

Bill McMorries, the city's engineering consultant, will tell city officials Monday night if Canyon will be able to continue dependence on wells for its water supply.

He will report on the test wells drilled into the Santa Rosa formation that lies deeper than the aquifer used now.

"Hopefully, the logs obtained on the three test holes drilled to approximately 1,000 feet each will indicate the possibility and practicality of this strata for potential city water supply," city manager noted in a memorandum to commissioners.

"If this proves to be impractical, due to lack of developable water or chemical analysis, then the city will have to seek other solutions to help supplement the existing water supply."

Also on the agenda, is a report on the development of Southeast Park. Final plans have been completed by the city parks and recreation board and an application for matching state and federal grants is being prepared. The city hopes to apply for $60,000 to be matched by $60,000 from local funds.

Fire chief Jack Jennings and deputy chief Joe Rice will report on the activities set for Fire Prevention Week.

City commissioners meet Monday night at 7 p.m. in the city complex.

Will the real witch stand up?

The problem of studying witchcraft is that no one can tell who the real witches are, Chris Cole, a WTSU student, told a group of faculty and students at the Friday Forum at the Episcopal Center.

"In the old days, witches were people you didn't like," he said. "Today, a witch is anyone who says he is."

Cole estimated that 90 percent of those claiming to be witches are "kids who have not outgrown Halloween or those, like the Manson clan, who use witchcraft as a front for drugs, sex, or violence."

Real witches are well organized and shun publicity, he says. Cole sees a possibility of renewed witch hunts in the future.

He also replied to a question if witches pose a threat: "Many say there is a real threat from Satanism," he said.

What kind of threat? "Oh, the usual. Overthrow of government, downfall of Christianity," he said.

Witchcraft is considered to have possibly developed by the merging of the ancient religions with Christianity. Thus, two of the Christian's most holy of holidays, Christmas and Easter, were adapted from early pagan rites, he said.

Most of the witch hunts took place in the 17th and 18th century. However, as late as 1959, a

Road link contract let

The State Highway and Public Transportation Commission has awarded Ivan Dement Inc. of Amarillo a contract for construction of an extension of Farm to Market Road 3331 (Hunsley Road) north of Canyon. Ivan Dement's low bid was $768,255.

The project extends Hunsley Road from the Canyon Expressway east 4 miles to Farm to Market Road 1541 (Washington Street).

FM 3331, a two-lane highway, will pass under Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway tracks and over Palo Duro and Tierra Blanca Creeks.

Ivan Dement is currently building a Hunsley Road overpass on the Canyon Expressway. The commission in May awarded $460,257 to Dement on that project.

The dirt work on the bridge has been completed and some foundation work has been performed, according to Lewis R. "Timer" Loyd of Canyon, State Department of Highways and Public Transportation Resident Engineer on the project.

Completion date on the overpass which will connect with the Hunsley Road extension is estimated at June 1977, Loyd said.

Save box tops for sports gear

Canyon elementary school students are saving their cereal box tops to help get sports and play equipment for their schools.

Boxes to collect the box tops were stationed around Rex Reeves school this week and Gene Howe school officials plan to begin the program also.

The "Fun and Fitness Program" is sponsored by Post cereals. Box tops are exchanged by the corporation for athletic equipment.

The additional equipment will help supplement the school's supply, Rex Reeves principal Bob Parks said.

"We have what we need but it never hurts to have more," he said. "We buy what we can afford."

Project planned to mark CBs

A "Mark Your CB or Tape Deck" project will be held at the university Oct. 11-13.

Scabbard and Blade, the military science honor society, will sponsor the stations located around campus. Engraving tools are being provided by the Amarillo police department to mark identification on the radios and tape decks.

The charge for the ID engraving will be 25 cents for each piece of equipment marked.

The stations will be open from 1-4 p.m. for three days. Stations are planned now for the Activities Center and the SUB. Additional stations may be added.

Update set on policies

An updating of school board policies is underway now by school superintendent Sam Thompson and a consultant from the Region 16 education service agency.

Dr. Thompson and Dr. Mike King of Region 16 began Thursday reviewing the team of written policies collected through the years.

They will compare the Canyon rules to state school board association's recommendations and then check the policies with Texas education codes for legality.

The administrative staff of principals, business manager Ronnie Wood and administrative assistant Willie McAlpin will review the rewritten policies and then they will be presented to the school board for study and final action, Dr. Thompson said.

Some of the policies are out of date or no longer apply, he explained.

For example, the teaching of religion has been altered in recent years by court decisions and new laws. The school policy needs updating to reflect these changes, he said.

Despite the complicated procedure necessary, Dr. Thompson said he expects the project to be completed quickly.

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

In my lifetime I have never seen such a lackluster presidential campaign as the one which we are now witnessing.

Even the 1920 campaign conducted by Warren G. Harding from the front porch of his home in Marion, Ohio had more oomph than this one.

At least one of the women reported to be on intimate terms with the nominee is said to have gone over to the Hardings and engaged in a public hair pulling with the future first lady.

The only sparkle of excitement in this one, and this was about as bright as a firefly at noon, was Jimmy Carter's interview with Playboy.

Sacrosanct Jimmy made a bid for the sinner vote by volunteering to Playboy that he has lusted and although he did not assuage the lust he was still guilty of fornication and adultery in his heart.

The President just doesn't have pizzaz. When he does come up with a well turned phrase he's like a toddler who has learned a new word.

Seemingly amazed that he has come up with such a bright saying, he beats it to death on the tube and across the nation often using in contexts where it ill applies.

The word is going around that Ed Newman won the first television debate and is picked going away to win the second. Too bad there's not time for Ed to get on the ballot.

Sorry folks, national problems for the next four years will not be solved by Churchillian appeals for "blood, sweat, toil and tears" or to our "finest hour."

We can expect no great rhetoric from the White House before the inauguration in January of 1981.

I think The News story Thursday on "federal regulations barring sexual discrimination" as applied to a boy being a candidate for Canyon High School football queen, points up the ridiculous extremes inherent in too much federal involvement in local affairs.

Our World

US sticking nose in other's business

The thought of the most powerful and richest nation in history bringing the pressure of its courts to bear in order to force a male football "queen" on the students of Canyon High School is ludicrous in the sublime.

Without further discussion of a foolish subject, let me say that I support CISD Administrative Assistant W. V. McAlpin and High School Principal John Sommer 100 percent in this matter. They're against it.

The declining prices of agricultural products in the face of soaring cost of farming is one of the most ominous problems facing this country today.

At 1960 purchasing power, wheat is bringing less than a dollar a bushel.

Although farmers represent only 4 percent of the voting strength of the country, they grow ALL of the food. Farming is so unprofitable today that there are few young farmers. American farmers, on the average, are middle age or older.

Corporate farming and nationalization of the land are not answers. Socialist countries around the globe have demonstrated that when the government farms, the people go hungry.

Independent farmers working for a decent return are the nation's economic backbone. We had better remember that.

By what right does Henry Kissinger — or any other official representative of the United States — interfere in the affairs of our neighbors?

Did the U.S. interfere when the Russian communists starved 7 million farmers to death, in addition to the millions of political dissenters they slaughtered, or shipped off to icy graves, in Siberia?

Did we lift a hand when Chinese communists murdered some 40 million of their own people, while millions more fled their homeland?

What have we done to help our Cuban neighbors who are being murdered, enslaved, or banished?

Have we made any effort to free the captive nations in Europe who have disappeared behind the communist curtain?

Didn't we leave South Vietnam and Cambodia to a communist blood bath?

What effort did we make to stop the mad Hitler as long as he confined his murderous deeds to German citizens? Only when he invaded his neighbors, and they asked our help did we send aid.

The United Nations, that august body of peace keepers, does nothing about the 13-foot wall erected to hold people in communist Germany, or the 12,000 guards and vicious dogs maintained to kill anyone who tries to scale the wall.

Rhodesia, however, who allows their citizens to come and go at will, and has the best economic conditions in Africa, has been the victim of U.N. wrath for 10 years.

Eighty-five percent of Rhodesian children are in school. That's 1 out of 6 of the entire population.

In Ethiopia, 1 in 52 attends school; in Zambia, 1 in 180; in Ghana, 1 in 210.

Even the most prejudiced critic must admit living conditions in Rhodesia are by far the best in all Africa. The typical reaction of visitors to Rhodesia is, "How can

Preaching ahead

This is a warning. Along with 4-H Week, Fire Week and all the other capital letter Weeks, National Newspaper Week is coming soon.

Never too shy anyway, this is the time when newspapers pat ourselves on the back and explain again why we are so important in a free society.

And we'll point out some dangers ahead. The press has acquired enormous power, although it is wrong to assume that this is a recent development. If you remember, William Hearst is credited, or blamed, in large measure for the Spanish-American War.

But the powerful are subject to abuses, and the free-wheeling way of some of the press has built a resentment from the people whose right to know we are busy upholding.

While the First Amendment seems clear, "Congress shall make no law" that infringes on the freedom of the press, when it comes right down to it, rights are what our courts say they are. And courts, although they are well insulated from public opinion, do slowly sway to the national opinion.

So, we're going to use National Newspaper Week to examine some of our responsibilities to the public and to explain why we do some of the things we do.

If you've heard it all before, you have permission to leave the room.

National Newspaper Week Oct. 10-16.

Well done, kids

Canyon High students did a bang-up job on their Homecoming celebration this year.

A sock day, a pep rally, a rousing bonfire, all the light-hearted antics that build enthusiasm and a sense of belonging and caring.

And, this year, the kids put in a good deed. In an afternoon of group hard work, they cleaned, weeded, cut, trimmed and emptied to make the campus shine.

Come to think of it, the kids have done a few other things that ought to be noted with praise. Inspired by the tragedy, they banded together this summer in several projects and raised a sizeable sum for a memorial scholarship honoring their classmate, Gary Castleman, killed this spring in an auto accident.

Their end results are impressive, but even more important, they get involved and they care. Canyon's adults might follow their example.

Bufs trip to Houston set

A trip to Houston to see the West Texas State University Buffaloes play in the Astrodome against the University of Houston is being sponsored by the Student Activities Council.

Fee for the trip is $38.50, said Jim Holston, director of student programming. This includes transportation, room accommodations and game tickets. Meals are not included, added Holston.

Departure time is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 7, and the group would return Sunday, Oct. 10. Those who have a place to stay in Houston will be charged $28.50 only.

and said if computer registration were adopted, it could be implemented in stages beginning with the graduate level. The advising procedures could be separated from the registration.

"Several members are annoyed at the registrar's lack of enthusiasm for computer pre-registration. We feel like as a council, we can't go any further on this until the registrar is ready to give full and impartial consideration to various plans on this," Munsell summed up later. Two study groups were appointed by the council.

Dr. Barry Duman will head a committee to study the extension course program. They are to evaluate the goals of off-campus education and what measures are being taken to meet the goals. With Duman on the committee are Dr. George Asquith and Munsell.

The second group composed of Dr. Jim Woodyard, Pat Donovan and Dr. Joe Nelson are to study extending the final exam period to five days instead of the present four.

4:31 left in the first quarter. On a first and ten from their Canyon 19, quarterback Ricky Cooper took the snap, turned left and handed the ball off. Unfortunately there was no one there to take the handoff and Plainview recovered his fumble at the 16.

The Bulldogs, aided by an 11 yard run by Royce Coleman, moved the needed territory in four plays and took a 7-0 lead with 2:39 left in the first quarter.

Canyon's defense did not permit another score but their offense remained mired down the rest of the half.

"It was our offense that kept us in trouble," said Wright. "They kept giving them good field position, kept making mistakes and we have got to get that worked out."

Most of the ineptness stemmed from the lack-luster performances of Cooper and Ward. Cooper, who is by and large the hub of the Eagle offense, completed only one of 13 passes and gained only 17 yards in 9 carries and, according to Wright, experienced the worst 48 minutes of his playing career.

Ward's overall performance was a combination of good and bad. He did score the two point conversion to give Canyon the go ahead points (good), but he only ran for 30 yards in seven carries (bad), far below his formal yardage output.

The defense was the pride of Canyon on the same night. They allowed Plainview a mere 38 yard total and one first down in the second half, giving the offense a chance to regroup.

"Our defense stood up and played very well the entire game," Wright was quick to mention. Plainview did manage to get 183 total yards during the night, 110 on the ground and 73 in the air, as well as 8 first downs. Most of the Bulldog offense came from Robert Long, who gained 54 yards, and Coleman, who picked up 50.

The Eagles gained 220 overall yards, 181 running and 29 passing. They also picked up 11 first downs.

Canyon, which is now 3-2 for the season, will next take on Amarillo Palo Duro at 7:30 p.m. this Friday at Frank Kimbrough Memorial Stadium.

Saturday and from 2 to 6 p.m. on Sundays.

The display includes 80 color prints and 560 sequence slides from over 50 foreign countries. Johnson, an avid traveler, will be at the museum on Sundays to talk with visitors on his travels and photography.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE VOTERS OF THE 13th CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT FROM CONGRESSMAN JACK HIGHTOWER

Two years ago I was elected to Congress by an overwhelming margin against an incumbent Congressman. During the 1974 campaign I refrained from any personal attacks on my opponent.

At that time I made it a point with my volunteers and my staff that they should treat anyone who opposed me with the utmost respect.

I thank all of my friends, supporters and staff for keeping the 1974 campaign on the highest level possible.

Responsiveness of government was a key issue. Our government does a poor job when it compounds our problems with red tape and burdensome regulations. Bureaucratic brush-offs of legitimate requests are very frustrating. I decided to organize my staff in such a way that people could deal at the local level with the bureaucratic maze of the federal agencies.

I promised two years ago that you would be able to call a number in the district and get an answer. When I took office I immediately established district offices in Amarillo, Vernon, and Wichita Falls—staffed by personnel who have been instructed personally to be responsive to the wishes and needs of my constituents. I am pleased that many people have told me they appreciate the work and attitude of my assistants. This is the only way I know to have a responsive Congressional office and I assure you I intend to try to improve this service constantly.

The Postal Service has been a bigger mess than ever since the Nixon Administration reorganized it. This is one reason I have chosen not to flood the mails with political propaganda such as newsletters. My alternative has been to communicate through the news media and to come home to the district at every opportunity for personal contact with constituents. All you ever heard about Washington having an artificial atmosphere is true. It has been my experience that the worst Congressmen are those who rarely come home. I am not going to let that happen to me. My policy is to talk with the people at home to see what they are thinking, and return to Washington and vote their philosophy and interests. I live in the district and commute to Washington.

As many of you know, I am being attacked, broadside, by my opponent in this 1976 campaign. His allegations and innuendos are based upon a misrepresentation of the record. I have voted in my two committees—Agriculture and Small Business—and on the floor in exactly the way I have reported to you and as I promised. My record is conservative by any measure. It is also independent of domination either by the Democratic leadership of the House or the Republican White House. I am neither an obstructionist nor a rubber stamp.

As this Congress adjourns, its overall record is mixed. This Congress has done some things it should not have done and left undone some things it should have done—such as enacting a "sunset" bill to cut down on federal bureaucracies or formulating an effective energy plan. We have been able to enact a bill to provide for prompt payment for the cattleman. We were able to pass a bill to provide for some relief on the estate tax problem which should benefit everyone who wants his or her property to remain in the family. These steps are not enough but they are movement in the right direction.

All of us feel sometimes that our views are not reflected properly in Washington. I would prefer a Congress that holds a tighter rein on spending, but I do not choose the other 434 members of the House. I work with them and try to influence them, but I cannot dictate their votes. I feel my job is to represent you—the people of the 13th District—and I pledge to do my best to represent you well.

Sincerely,

JACK HIGHTOWER

white lace basket filled with petals.

Escorted in marriage by Norman Glenn, the bride wore a floor length beige and burnt orange dress with green print. The dress was styled with a square neckline and butterfly sleeves. She had a corsage of white carnations and apricot colored roses.

The bridegroom's mother selected a grey suit with white accessories complemented with a white carnation corsage. The grandmother of the bridegroom wore a lemon yellow suit with white accessories and had a white carnation corsage.

A yellow linen cloth covered the serving table for the reception following in fellowship hall of the First Assembly of God Church. ## Yule cards sought Christmas decorations are being made by the residents of LaCasa Canyon Nursing Home under the guidance of recreation director, Stelcie Williams.

Presently the group is making some decorations but is in need of used holiday greeting cards, especially those with religious scenes, according to Mrs. Williams.

Anyone with holiday cards wishing to donate to the project may do so by leaving the cards at the office of the nursing home at 2623 12th Avenue or by calling Mrs. Williams, 655-4352.

Supper begins clubyear

Members of Sue Hite opened their club year with a covered dish supper in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Splawn, 1703 Hillcrest, Sept. 27, 1976.

Frances Holman, president, called attention to the club's theme, "Our Dreams — Blue Prints for Action," and challenged the club members to make their many dreams a reality.

Betty Stoker, program chairman, previewed the year's programs — each emphasizing a specific dream for club, community, state, nation and the world.

The roll call, an interesting feature of the program, was answered with the name of a favorite Texas tourist site.

Edith Priddy gave a report on Girl's Town explaining needs and projects.

The next club meeting will be Oct. 25 in the home of Mrs. Virginia King Allen.

WINGS organized for women students

To aid women over 22 years of age who are returning to school, women at West Texas State University have organized WINGS.

Women Involved in New Goals was established last April prior to the 1976 Bicentennial Panhandle Achievement Awards Luncheon honoring distinguished Panhandle women. The second annual awards luncheon, a project of WINGS, will be April 23, 1977.

Each woman student over the age of 22, which is the age of the "traditional student," is a member of the organization.

Between 1,000 and 1,200 mailings were sent to women students in the area over 22 years of age to determine ideas for the organization.

"We also had an orientation coffee last year to get familiar with the students and to find out what their needs are and just to let them know we're here," said Linda Stone, WINGS secretary from Canyon.

Brown bag seminars, which were started last year, will serve as regular monthly meetings for the organization. Approximately 70 to 100 women students attended each of the seminars last year.

Topics of discussion for the brown bag seminars are decided by the participants. During the first luncheon of the fall semester, the women selected topics for the spring semester meetings.

Topics for the fall semester seminars include "Pot Luck and Politics" with Fred Marsh and David Mathis of the political science department on Oct. 20 and "Who Wants Me — How Much Am I Worth," presented by Gene Parker, director of placement, on Nov. 10.

"The main purpose of WINGS is to give older women coming back to school a place of security to come and visit with other women and with committee members," Allene Stovall, assistant professor of health, physical education and recreation and co-sponsor of WINGS, said.

"They're (older women students) very apprehensive when they come in. They're concerned with being in a class with average age students and vice versa," she explained.

Mrs. Stella Sherwood of Panhandle will serve as president of WINGS. Sandra Meek, associate dean of student life for women, is also co-sponsor.

Dr. Enid Bates, associate professor of education, is coordinator and advisor of Programs for Women, which serves the non-traditional woman student.

He is a retired farmer-rancher and the McDonalds are members of the United Methodist Church at Texline. They have two children, Ray McDonald of Dalhart and Gene McDonald of 2804 Barbara Lane, Amarillo.

Friends and relatives of the McDonalds are invited to the anniversary reception Oct. 10. Hosting the occasion will be the couple's children and their four grandsons: Johnny of Plainview, Jim of Logan, New Mexico and Tom and Tim of Dalhart. The McDonalds also have two great grandsons.

Piehl home on 'tour'

The Bill Piehl home at #25 Country Club Drive in Hunsley Hills will be among local homes open to visitors during the annual Harvest Home Tour Oct. 10. Mrs. Piehl is shown with a creel picture, made by her mother, which hangs in the main hallway.

Celebrates 90th Birthday

Mrs. Pearl Burgin celebrated her 90th birthday last Sunday with a dinner recognizing the occasion at the home of her granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Phelan.

Mrs. Burgin was born in Montague County near Nacona, Texas. She moved to Canyon from Hereford in 1967 and makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. M. D. Buttrill at 520 11th Avenue.

Out of town guests for the birthday dinner were her son, J. N. Burgin of Corpus Christi; sister-in-laws, Mrs. Walter Hodges of Hereford, Mrs. Vestus Hodges of White Deer, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fleming and children of Pampa.

Other guests for the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Randy Buttrill and children and Mrs. Walter Kirkpatrick, all of Canyon.

The three bedroom, three bath home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Piehl at #25 Country Club Drive in Hunsley Hills will be among local homes opened to visitors during the annual Harvest Home Tour Oct. 10.

Members of the Piehl family did much of the labor for building the home which was designed by Mrs. Piehl solely to satisfy needs of the four member family. Electrical and plumbing work were done by Mr. Piehl, who is the president of Western Sales and Testing in Amarillo.

Mrs. Piehl and their two daughters, Plug and Puff, did much of the painting and other decorating for the home. Plug, a 1975 graduate of Canyon High School, is an industrial education major attending Texas A&M and Puff, 13, is an eighth grade student at Canyon Junior High School this fall.

The white brick Piehl home is complemented with a courtyard entry, side courtyard and the family patio which overlooks the creek. Harvest Home Tour guests will be given a guided tour of the Piehl home from 2-6 p.m. on Oct. 10 with tickets selling at $1 by University Study Club sponsors.

Tickets entitle the Home Tour guests to visit the Piehl home at #25 Country Club Drive and three other local homes including the Elton Cox home at 1411 Creekmore, the Edwin Low home at 3302 Linda Lane and the country home of the Jimmy Craigs, ten miles south of the city on Highway 87 and two blocks west at Ralph Switch.

Home Tour guests will also be able to purchase home baked goods, gift items and crafts during the home tour hours at the "country kitchen" which will this year be staged at the Cox address, 1411 Creekmore.

Numerous heirloom items and art objects will be noted at the Piehl home. As guests enter the foyer they will see two heirloom hickory chairs made by Mrs. Piehl's great grandfather for his bride in 1868 from trees he chopped himself in Tennessee. The chairs originally had hickory splint seats and were set together with square pegs. The foyer wall features the family coat of arms, a water color and the initial 'P' in goldleaf.

The adjacent living room has an antique mirror and curio cabinet containing various collected items of interest and an oil painting by Mrs. Ona Clontz of Tulsa, who hung a new painting monthly for Mrs. Piehl's invalid sister.

Each of the three bathrooms of the Piehl home feature ceramic wall murals by Amarillo artist, Roberta Gragg, with a snow skier in the girl's bath suggesting a sport enjoyed by all members of the family. The hall bath is decorated with a painting of the first trailer built by Mr. Piehl and helium balloons in the master bath denote the general industry in which the Piehl's work.

Individual interests of family members are apparent in the bedrooms of the home. The spacious master bedroom is accented with a framed pillow top made by Mrs. Piehl's great-grandmother prior to 1895, using a loop stitch with a treadle type sewing machine. The master bedroom accommodates a private seating area, a built-in dressing bar and the master bath has separate tiled shower and tub areas.

Cabinetry in the kitchen area was designed by Mrs. Piehl and a butcher block service island was made from wood scraps from the main cabinet section. The personalized kitchen is separated by a serving bar from the den which features a curving fireplace across the entire West wall and which has a bridge timber mantle. A hand embroidered cloth from Mrs. Piehl's mother, Mrs. Eula Hayes of Amarillo, decorates the mantle and a creel picture by Mrs. Hayes decorates the main hallway through a double brick archway.

The step-down den opens into a garden room, overlooking the patio and a nearby creek, which was enclosed last year to house a variety of plants. A similar step-down "hot chocolate room" joins the garden room area and is accessible from the main hallway through a bright red door. The room features a black vinyl bar, a game table and a small fireplace. Various items of interest include a reverse running clock and a personalized bar plaque.

Also included in the Piehl's personally designed home are a small office for Mr. Piehl to entertain customers and work at home. The office opens into a courtyard with a lattice top, brick floor and iron work gates. Various potted plants and wrought iron garden furnishings complete the setting.

A sewing room nearby features folding closet doors which display prints that originally hung on the wall of the Piehl's first home. The prints were cut in half and rebaked for use on the closet doors. The sewing room also features photographs of the Piehl daughters from the past several years.

Adjacent the main hallway are a formal dining room, a utility room, and playroom for musical interests and games. The playroom is fitted with a piano, organ, pool table and game table and the walls are bedecked with musical awards.

Home Tour guests will be greeted at the Piehl home by a University Study Club committee composed of Joan Davidchik, chairman, Lillis Moore, Betty Ross Howard, Lois Hull, Amelia Irlbeck, Jean Wright, Nola Margaret Jolly, Mattie Moreland and Betty Irlbeck.

Fire prevention urged by local organization

Randall County Judge Woody Pond took time from his busy schedule this week to sign a proclamation for the Oct. 3-9 observance of Fire Prevention Week as promoted by the Randall County Farm Bureau. Bob O'Donald, Farm Bureau president, right, is shown with the County Judge hanging a poster at the County Courthouse.

Fire Prevention Week has been proclaimed for observance in Randall County Oct. 3-9 with County Judge Woody Pond signing the proclamation document in conjunction with the observance as planned by the Randall County Farm Bureau. In conjunction with all fire departments in the county, the Farm Bureau is working to emphasize fire prevention and protection across the county. Fire Prevention Week is always the Sunday-through-Saturday period in which falls Oct. 9, date of The Great Chicago Fire of 1871. The Chicago disaster killed 250 persons and destroyed 17,430 buildings at a cost of $168 million. In his proclamation, Judge Pond quoted the National Fire Protection Association annual fire losses as 12,000 deaths; another 300,000 seriously hurt;

1,000,000 buildings burnt; and total dollar losses due to fire each year in excess of the $3.1 billion mark.

NFPA, national sponsor of Fire Prevention Week, has a catchy new theme on their posters and brochures — "LEARN NOT TO BURN". The theme of new materials is showing people what to do and what not to do. One of the new illustrated posters concerns children and matches — with the slogan "Keep Out of the Strike Zone". There's a "strike zone" in every home, from the floor to about chest-high — a zone which should never contain matches or lighters. The Strike Zone is where children spend most of their time — looking for things to do — and where they are apt to find things with which to start a fire.

Several programs designed to help curtail fire losses are projects of the county Farm Bureau, in cooperation with the Texas Farm Bureau, which sponsors the attendance of local volunteer firemen to the annual Texas Firemen's Training School each summer in College Station. More than 1,400 firemen have attended under Farm Bureau sponsorship during the past twelve years. Attending from Randall County this past summer was Lloyd Kurtz.

The state and local Farm Bureaus also pay $75 to fire departments for fighting rural fires on Farm Bureau insured property.

In addition to these programs, county Farm Bureaus sponsor a graphic 45-minute fire prevention demonstration. Some 1,700 fire safety programs have been presented in 200 different counties, before schools, civic clubs and other groups by the Texas Farm Bureau Safety Department staff during the past fifteen years.

Schools, civic clubs and other organizations planning fire or safety education programs for the year may schedule these programs by contacting the Randall County Farm Bureau.

Runners spark quips

When it comes to idioms and clever phrases West Texas State University cross country coach Bob Kitchens tries to be peerless. After a meet last year in which Joseph Kemei smoked the field he stated, "Joseph is like an old wine, the older he gets the better he gets."

Last Friday at the Lubbock Christian College meet he had a different adage. Kemei was beat in the last 10 yards of the race and Kitchens commented, "Joe hasn't reached down into the well yet to get that last drop of water."

Kemei ran the course in 19:16 which was good for second place, behind John Keibro of Eastern

DWI is charged

A motorist from Happy was charged with driving while intoxicated after he had a one-car accident here Wednesday night.

Police say the man's vehicle crashed into the guard rail on the Hereford Highway service road. The car drove over the crumpled railing and came to rest astride the rail, according to police.

New Mexico who turned in a 19:13 time.

The Buffs also came in second with 40 points to Wayland Baptist which scored 33 points. Eastern New Mexico came in third and Lubbock Christian College was fourth.

"Joseph did a good job, he ran a smart race and a very capable race," said Kitchens assessing the meet. "We felt John Chemarango ran a very good race. He went out a little fast and ran the first mile in 4:27 which is too fast. The other people were never in the race and put us out of contention for the team title."

The Buffs do not have another meet until Oct. 9 at Eastern New Mexico.

"This week we are off and we have been working on increasing our pace and trying to make everyone work a little harder in workouts," said Kitchens. "Our mental aspect has picked up considerably and we think it will show up next week in the meet."

President's Council to be treated to dinner

Members of the West Texas State University President's Council will be treated to dinner and entertainment Oct. 5 at the Amarillo Country Club.

"Each year we plan an occasion to honor the members of the council for their contributions to the President's Development Fund," said Keith Winter, director of development.

The entertainment will include a performance by the New Day Singers, and a showing of "WTSU Perspective," a slide show presentation which will highlight various educational programs underway in WT's seven colleges and schools.

The President's Council was formed in September, 1973 by eight Amarillo and Canyon businessmen to help WT raise money to do things that are not provided for in state appropriations, Winter said. Participating from Amarillo were Gene Edwards, E. W. Williams, Jim Whyte and Dick Harris. From Canyon were David West, Don Max Vars, Cordell Huddleston and David Levens.

In the last three years, approximately $15,000 has gone to the Faculty Venture Fund, which finances innovative faculty projects that enhance their teaching effectiveness or professionalism, according to Winter. Other money goes to a variety of types of student recruitment and public relations.

President's Council members pledge $250 or more each year in support of West Texas State. Membership in the organization is approximately 175.

4-H Activities spark 4-H Week

By PAUL SAMMONS
National 4-H Week Oct. 3-9 will Son's birth is announced

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby R. Tipping of 4602 S. Hughes, Amarillo, announce the Sept. 18 birth of a son, Jeremy Ray, at Palo Duro Hospital in Canyon. The baby weighed 7 pounds, 1½ ounces at birth and measured 20½ inches in length. The father is employed with Cummins Sales and Service.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wallace of Lancaster and Mrs. Evelyn Tipping of Seminole.

provide a challenge for youngsters across the United States to fulfill this year's theme, "4-H - Room To Grow."

With a 7.8 per cent increase in membership nationwide, this year's enrollment includes 5.6 million young people between the ages of 9 and 19.

Some 120,000 4-H youngsters across Texas will also be participating in different countywide activities, notes Dr. John T. Pelham, state 4-H and youth leader for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Texas enrollment includes about 3,000 youth under nine years of age, 45,000 in the teens (9-11), 46,000 in their early teens (12-14) and 24,000 between the ages of 15 and 19.

A little over half of the Texas young people enrolled in 4-H live in towns with populations over 10,000. The rest of the youngsters live in the ever-increasing suburbs and on farms.

There are 125 4-H members enrolled in the Randall County 4-H program and 39 adult leaders to improve and keep our program going.

The 4-Hers participate in agriculture and home economics related projects. The adults help to educate the members and are a tremendous asset of the total 4-H picture.

Our National 4-H week will be highlighted by our county awards banquet Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at the community center for all 4-H families and special guests of 4-Hers.

The following people have been working extremely hard to have a successful banquet and have had specific responsibilities to carry out: Mrs. Erwin Davis, Ronda Davis, Mrs. Joe Detten, Wendell Trammell, Mrs. Allen Winter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turpin, Randy Derkard, Ranger Thornton, Pat Osborne, Mrs. Wendell Trammell, Mrs. Bob Catthel, Mitch Catthel, Mark Cox, Mrs. Elmer Hartman, Mrs. Raymond Hinders, Mrs. James Hales.

Tammy Tucek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tucek exhibited the third place heavy weight Duroc barrow at the Panhandle South Plains fair in Lubbock this past Monday. Congratulations, Tammy on a real fine job.
